You are about to purchase a product that is not simple and may be difficult to understand.

What is this product?

Type: The product is a limited partner's interest in the Fund either directly held by you or held via a trustee on your account.

Objectives: The objective is to increase the capital invested by the investors during the term of the Fund. To this end, company investments in small and medium-sized companies are acquired, held and sold. The investment focus lies in the so-called early-stage area. Returns that exceed the costs incurred are generally returned to the investors or paid out to the Fund's initiators via carried interest. The return of the Fund depends on the performance of the investment assets held and the appropriate time of acquisition and disposal.

Intended retail investor: Investors within the meaning of Art. 6 of the EuVECA Regulation (i.e., Regulation (EU) No. 345/2013, amended by Regulation (EU) 2017/1991). The minimum capital commitment is EUR 100,000. The Fund is aimed at investors who have experience with private equity funds or venture capital funds, can hold the product for the long term and can cope with a total loss of their investment.

Term: At least 10 years from the date of the first closing of the subscription. The Fund is a so-called closed-end fund. This means that the interests cannot be returned to the Fund by the investor. Cancellations of the participation in the Fund are also excluded - except in the cases prescribed by law.

← Lower Risk

Higher Risk →

This risk indicator assumes you keep the product until the end of the term.

The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to cash in early. You will have to pay significant extra costs to cash in early.¹

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product in risk class 6 out of 7, which is the second highest risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance as "high" and poor market conditions are very likely to impact our capacity to pay you.

The risk indicator does not take into account that key persons may leave the Manager and that the default of other investors may affect the diversification of the Fund.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

This table shows the money you could get back over the recommended holding period, under different scenarios, assuming that you invest EUR 10,000.

The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products.

The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies, and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market and the portfolio performs and how long you keep the investment.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you.

This product cannot be cashed in. This means it is difficult to estimate how much you would get back if you cash in before the end of the recommended holding period.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens, if the Fund is unable to pay out?

There is no contractually guaranteed payout. However, according to the provisions of the limited partnership agreement, investors will participate in the returns generated by the Fund. If the Fund has to file for bankruptcy, losses would be likely for the investors. A default of other companies (general partner or managing limited partner), on the other hand, does not lead directly to financial losses for the investors, but can (temporarily or permanently) impair the Fund's ability to act. A possible loss is not covered by a compensation or security system for investors.

What are the costs?

Costs are incurred in the course of the administration, investment activity and management of the Fund. These costs are borne by the Fund and thus indirectly by each individual investor in relation to his investment in the product, since the Fund's returns to investors are reduced. The costs can be divided into one-off, ongoing and performance-related (ancillary) costs. The figures below are partly estimates. Their actual amount may be different.

Costs over time

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs, and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.
